

Study Day

The Normans in England, 1066 – 1215 with Rupert Willoughby

This Study Day will be held in the Rushall & Charlton St Peter Village Hall on TUESDAY 12TH NOVEMBER 2019 at 10.30 am prompt

Session One: The World of the Bayeux Tapestry – a lively introduction to the tapestry and unravelling of some of its mysteries

Session Two: Conquest and Legacy – an account of the orgy of building after the Conquest that all but effaced the fabric of Saxon England, with the focus on individual patrons and their lives

Session Three: Knight Errant: The Life and Adventures of William the Marshal – a celebration of the life of a characteristic Norman knight of the Magna Carta period

The cost for the day will be £35 a head including coffee and biscuits and a light lunch. Please note that The Arts Society Insurance covers only Members attending this Study Day.

Refunds will not normally be given. However, you may send a friend in your place.

.....
I/We would like to attend the STUDY DAY on Tuesday 12th November 2019.

Name/s.....

Address.....

Email.....Tel no.....

Cheques to be made payable to The Arts Society Pewsey Vale and returned to:

Margaret Godson, Court House, Westcourt, Burbage, Marlborough SN8 3BN

or pay by Bacs - Account No: 43922561 Sort code: 20-05-06

For further details contact Margaret on 01672 810219, and please let her know if you require any special food, eg gluten-free, vegetarian, etc.